5. At all times relevant to this Indictment defendant, CHARLEY K. PATRIS, was a DPS detective assigned to SIS and was the SIS supervisor. PATRIS's principal responsibility at SIS was to investigate drug crimes.

6. At all times relevant to this Indictment, the Attorney General's Investigative Unit ("AGIU") was a law enforcement unit within the CNMI Attorney General's Office. Among other responsibilities, AGIU dispensed United States currency to CNMI law enforcement officers, including officers assigned to SIS, for use in conducting drug investigations.

The Conspiracy

7. From in or about April 2002, continuing to in or about December 2003, in the District of the Northern Mariana Islands and elsewhere, the defendants, ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS and CHARLEY K. PATRIS, together and with others known and unknown to the grand jury, unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed to commit offenses against the United States, to wit, to commit theft concerning programs receiving federal funds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 666; to make false declarations before a grand jury, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1623; and to make false statements, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001.

8. As a part and object of said conspiracy the defendants, ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS and CHARLEY K. PATRIS, unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly, while agents of DPS, a department of the CNMI government, which received in excess of $10,000 in federal funding annually, would and did embezzle, steal, obtain by fraud, and otherwise without authority knowingly convert to the use of persons other than the rightful owner and intentionally misapply, property that was valued at $5,000 and more and was owned by, and was under the care, custody, and control of such organization, government and agency, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 666.

9. It was further a part and object of said conspiracy that the defendants, ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS and CHARLEY K. PATRIS, unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly, under oath during testimony before a grand jury of the United States, would and did make false material declarations, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1623.

1           10. It was further a part and object of said conspiracy that the
2 defendants, ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS and CHARLEY K. PATRIS, and their co-
3 conspirators, in a matter within the jurisdiction of the executive branch of the government
4 of the United States, unlawfully, knowingly and willfully, would and did falsify, conceal,
5 and cover up by trick, scheme, and device a material fact, and make materially false,
6 fictitious, and fraudulent statements and representations, in violation of Title 18, United
7 States Code, Section 1001.

8                           Means and Methods Of The Conspiracy

9           11. Among the means and methods by which the defendants, ERIC
10 JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS and CHARLEY K. PATRIS, together with others known and 11 unknown, would and did carry out the conspiracy were the following:

12                   a. ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS and CHARLEY K.
13 PATRIS, abused their positions as CNMI law enforcement officers by stealing from DPS
14 property, including cash and evidence, valued in excess of $5,000.

15                   b. ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS, CHARLEY K. PATRIS,
16 and their co-conspirators, identified and exploited weaknesses in DPS's controls and 17 procedures with respect to the custody of evidence and record-keeping to both further and 18 conceal their theft of property from DPS, including property that had been seized from 19 persons in the course of SIS investigations. As MAFNAS and PATRIS well knew, such 20 weaknesses permitted them to steal property from DPS with minimal risk of detection.

21                   c. ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS, CHARLEY K. PATRIS,
22 and their co-conspirators, for the purpose of furthering and concealing their unlawful
23 activities, prepared and filed materially false and misleading reports with respect to DPS
24 investigations and caused official DPS records to be false and misleading.

25                   d. ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS and CHARLEY K.
26 PATRIS, for the purpose of furthering and concealing their unlawful activity, purposely
27 failed to file required DPS reports with respect to actions undertaken, including reports
28 with respect to evidence seized, controlled buys conducted and persons arrested.

1 e. ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS, CHARLEY K. PATRIS,
2 and their co-conspirators, converted to their own use funds entrusted to them by DPS and
3 AGIU.

4 f. ERIC JOHN TUDELA MAFNAS, CHARLEY K. PATRIS,
5 and their co-conspirators, provided materially false and misleading statements to agents
6 of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

8 PATRIS gave materially false and misleading testimony before a federal grand jury
9 investigating their activities.
